Refund Policy:

Any student who pays in advance and requests a refund will receive a refund for those lessons not yet taken (or scheduled within the next 24 hours). This refund will be based on the normal hourly rate. To receive the refund all the no show fees, or cancellation fees must be paid. Refunds are issued within 7-10 business days from the date of approved refund. If the account has no activity (scheduled driving or classes) for a period of more than 6 months then a $50.00 reactivation fee will be charged prior to scheduling driving lessons, training, or classes. Every effort will be made to ensure instruction will be offered during this time limit. The fact that the person does not obtain a driver's license during this time is not the responsibility of Neil's Wheels Driving School and will not be cause for extension.

Pick ups and drop offs will all be at the Breck School. There will only be one teen driver during each BTW. Each student will get their 2 hours behind the wheel each session.

This is a 1-year contract or until the student turns 18.

This agreement/contract constitutes an agreement/contract between the program and the student/parent, and no verbal statements or promises will be recognized.
